_____	<input type="checkbox"/> mother	<input type="checkbox"/> father	<input type="checkbox"/> joint

E. Disagreements

Where parents have elected joint decision making in Section II. B. above, please explain how any disagreements in decisions making will be resolved (e.g., correspondence, telephone conversations, third party tiebreaker vote, mediation, etc.):

In the event the parties are unable to agree then father shall make the final decision after the parties have conferred and made reasonable efforts to come to a joint decision.

II. Parenting and Visitation Schedule

A. Residential Time With Each Parent

The Custodial Parent is: Father

Under the schedule set forth below, each parent will have parenting time with the child(ren) in the approximate percentages stated below:

Mother: 50 %

Father: 50 %

B. The Parents Agree to the Following (check all that apply):

(x) The parents shall make genuine efforts to refrain from arguments concerning visitations. Such arguments undermine the parents' relationship with the child and burden the child with the guilt of responsibility for such friction. The parents shall endeavor to cooperate with the child with the goal of reducing the strife and confusion surrounding the child when parents have elected to divorce. It is beneficial that the child experience affectionate care from both parents, and both of the parties hereto acknowledge that visitation exists primarily for the benefit of the child.

(x) Both parties shall be diligent in having the child ready with the necessary belongings and available at the appointed times and the transporting party shall be prompt in picking up and delivering the child, provided, however, that the transporting parent for visitation shall have a grace period of fifteen (15) minutes for pick-up and delivery if both parties live within a distance of fifty (50) miles from each other. If the one way distance to be traveled is in excess of one hundred (100) miles, the grace period shall be thirty (30) minutes. In the event the visiting parent exceeds the grace period, the visitation for that weekend is forfeited unless prior notification and arrangements have been made and except in cases where the visiting parent suffers an unavoidable breakdown or delay en route and the visiting parent promptly notifies the custodial parent by phone of the delay. Repeated violations by either parent shall be cause for granting a modification of the custody order either by changing custody or curtailing visitation, as the case may be.

(x) In the event that the child develops a serious illness or injury while visiting with one parent, that parent shall promptly inform the other parent of the child's condition. Elective surgery shall be performed on the child only after both parents have consented to the same. Emergency surgery necessary for the preservation of life or to prevent a further serious injury or condition may be performed without the other parent's consent, provided, however, that if time permits, the other parent shall be consulted and, in any event, he or she shall be informed as soon as possible.

(x) Neither party shall have an his or her girlfriend, boyfriend, or overnight date who is unrelated by blood or marriage when the child is in his or her custody.

(x) If either parent decides to relocate more than 100 miles away from the other parent's home, the moving parent will give the other parent written notice of the intent to relocate no less than (choose one) [30 days / 60 days / 90 days / six months] prior to the date of moving.

(x) Neither party shall consume alcohol or illegal drugs and then operate a motor vehicle when the child is in his or her custody.

(x) The parent in possession of the minor child(ren) will be responsible for supervising and assisting in any schoolwork immediately due and for any activity scheduled for the child. The parents agree to give each other reasonable notice of any activities scheduled during the other parent's possession of the child(ren).

C. Visitation

During the term of this parenting plan the non-custodial parent shall have at a minimum the following rights of visitation (choose an item):

() The first and third weekend of each month.

() The first, third, and fifth weekend of each month.
